In addition to tuition fees, an annual maintenance cost of TZS 950,000 will be charged along with the first-term tuition fees. This fee is payable once per academic year.

Parents of new students enrolling at the Aga Khan Education Service (AKES), Tanzania are required to pay a one-time admission fee of TZS 1,350,000 and a refundable caution deposit of TZS 540,000. This deposit will be refunded upon the student's departure from the school, subject to clearance of all outstanding fees and fines.

The school promotes a shared learning environment for siblings and offers a 5% discount on annual tuition fees for the second child and beyond.

AKES, Tanzania does not accept cash payments. Payments can be made via bank deposit, mobile money, or the Duka Direct app. Parents may also visit the school to pay by card using Point of Sale (POS) machines available at the reception or finance office.

Please include the student identity number provided by the school in all payments to ensure the funds are correctly credited to the student's account.

Please contact the finance department for further information: finance@akest.org.

Refunds:

Students who are registered and have paid fees for the current academic year but choose not to attend must provide written notice to the school at least one term in advance to be eligible for a tuition refund. Refunds apply only to tuition fees and will be issued via cheque or bank transfer, with any transfer costs borne by the recipient.

Fees for the current term are non-refundable if a student withdraws after the term has begun. To withdraw from the following term, written notice must be submitted at least four calendar weeks before the current term ends. Failure to provide timely notice will result in tuition fees for the next term being non-refundable.

Admission fees and annual maintenance fees are strictly non-refundable.
