The Form 4 examination class will have the annual fees paid in two instalments.

Refunds:

Students who are registered and have paid fees for the current academic year but choose not to attend must provide written notice to AKES, Tanzania at least one term in advance to be eligible for a tuition refund.

Refunds apply only to tuition fees and will be issued via cheque or bank transfer, with any transfer costs borne by the recipient.

Fees for the current term are non-refundable if a student withdraws after the term has begun. To withdraw from the following term, written notice must be submitted at least four calendar weeks before the current term ends. Failure to provide timely notice will result in tuition fees for the next term being non-refundable.
